ARRIVING TO VILNIUS

Vilnius International Airport is located in the southern part of the city and is less than 15 minutes away from the centre. The airport serves over 4 million travellers annually.

It is easy enough to reach the city centre from the airport:

- By bus: there are two express buses (1G, 3G) to the city centre and a bus (88) to the Old Town. There's a public transportation stop conveniently located outside the airport's arrival hall. It takes only 15-20 min to reach Old Town and city center. www.stops.lt
- By train: there's a dedicated train that runs between the airport and the Main Railway Station. A train stop, stairs and passenger lift are installed right outside the airport's passenger terminal. This is a very quick way to reach the city centre – the ride only takes 8 min and costs 1 Eur. The Vilnius Railway Station is located a short distance from the Old Town and can be reached on foot.
- By taxi: there's a Vilnius Aiport approved taxi stand right outside the arrivals hall. These taxis accept credit cards. It takes only 10 min to reach the Old Town and city center, the cots is ~10 Eur. www.vno.lt

GETTING AROUND VILNIUS

Public Transport

It is made up of bus, express bus and trolleybus lines. The extensive network of public transport connects each of the city's districts and is easy to navigate. Timetables are available at every stop.

The Vilnius Citizens Card is an electronic ticketing system used throughout the city's public transport network.

City guests are recommended to use the public transport journey-planning app TRAFI. The app combines all transport options in real times and lets users compare prices and timing with just a few clicks. www.trafi.com

Shared Mobility

Vilnius is both vibrant and laid back, and its relatively compact size makes visiting it a pleasure. It's certainly a walkable city, and often times there is no need to use public transportation to get around.

Bike, car and scooter sharing systems are great for getting around the city, and both services are popular with locals and city guests: Dropbyke, Cyclocity, Citybee, Bolt, Spark.

Ride hailing apps offer another simple and user-friendly way to get around the city quickly, and these services are relatively inexpensive compared to other cities: Uber, Bolt, eTaxi.
